Section 2. The fact that the end of the Forty-first Legislature is near, and the crowded condition of the calendar of both houses, and the further fact that a great number of claims for which appropriations are herein made are long past due, and the public policy requires that all just demands upon the State for the prison system of the State of Texas be adjusted with as little delay as possible, creates an emergency and an imperative necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Strike out all above the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

A bill to be entitled "An Act making appropriations to pay for emergencies and miscellaneous claims against the State for the prison system of the State of Texas and authorizing payment of said emergency appropriations and miscellaneous items on taking effect of this act, and declaring an emergency."

Committee Room,
Austin, Texas, March 5, 1929.

Hon. Barry Miller, President of the Senate, and Hon. W. S. Barron, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Gentlemen: We, your conference committee appointed by your respective bodies to consider Senate bill No. 286, have had said bill under consideration and beg leave to report that we have reached the following agreement, to-wit:

The committee agreed to strike out an item of $1,333.28 for extra help for the Comptroller's Department, and the sum of $1,648 for contingent expenses, as shown in the Senate bill, and said item having been amended by the House and reduced to the sum of $500, and the following was inserted in lieu thereof: For extra help as needed from February 1, 1929, to August 31, 1929, $2083.28. To supplement contingent expenses from February 1, 1929, to August 31, 1929, $1000.

The Senate bill provided for the sum of $775 to buy an addressograph machine, which was cut out by the House bill. The Senate committee receded from its position and agreed that said sum should be eliminated from said bill.

The House committee receded from its position in regard to an increase of an item of $1750 to $2250 for the salary of an actuary and deputy in the Life Division of the Insurance Department, and agreed that same should remain as in the Senate bill at $1750. An item was added in the Life Division of the Insurance Department for $750 for an additional stenographer for the department, which was added by both committees.

The Senate bill provided for a salary of clerks in the General Land Office in the sum of $4725, which was increased by House amendments to $12,000. The Senate partly receded, and the House partly receded, from their positions and adopted the following amendments to the bill as a part of their report: Salaries of six clerks at $150 each per month from February 1, 1929, to August 31, 1929, $5400; salaries of six clerks at $125 each per month from February 1, 1929, to August 31, 1929, $4500. The Senate accepted House amendments, allowing the sum of $1200 for material for photostatic machine for the General Land Office.

The committee agreed to add an item of $2000 for the State Highway Department to pay contingent expenses, telephone, telegraph, express, postage, stationery and office supplies for the State Highway Department.

The Senate committee accepted the House amendment eliminating an item of $950 in the Agricultural Department for the purpose of collecting, compiling, etc., agricultural information, and accepted the increase from $2500 to $3500 for traveling expenses for the department. The Senate committee also accepted the House amendment of $6000 for the enforcement of the pink bollworm law, and the sum of $500 for contingent expenses for the year ending August 31, 1929, for the Agricultural Department. The Senate committee also accepted the House amendment providing for an appropriation for the sum of $149,920 for the purpose of paying the salaries of inspectors and other persons engaged in the conduct of tick eradication, etc., for the Live Stock Sanitary Commission from April 1, 1929, to August 31, 1929. The Senate committee also accepted the House amendment for the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of paying for the expenses of packing, shipping, etc., of World War trophies, etc.

Both committees struck out the items providing for the sum of $2738.08 to pay the salary of the judge of the 111th Judicial District, and the sum of $1250 to pay the salary of the assistant district attorney for the 49th Judicial District, and inserted in lieu thereof the following: To pay salaries, expenses and per diem for district judges and district attorneys for newly created districts to August 31, 1929, $25,197. To pay the salary of newly created criminal district judge, Jefferson county, Texas, to August 31, 1929, $2500. To pay salary of assistant district attorney of Lubbock county, Texas, to August 31, 1929, $1250. To pay salary of assistant district attorney of Webb county, Texas, to August 31, 1929, $1250.

The bill as agreed upon is hereto attached and will more fully set out the agreement reached by your conference committee, which is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Mr. Williams of Travis offered the following amendments to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 415 by adding thereto three sections, to be numbered 2, 3 and 4, as follows:

"Sec. 2. When the estate of a ward shall consist of real estate or of personal property, or both, and such property is owned by said ward in common with other heirs, legatees or devisees, and it appears to be to the best interest of said ward's estate to convey, along with some or all of the other heirs, legatees or devisees, such real or personal estate or a part thereof to a corporation chartered under the laws of the State of Texas, with a capital stock not exceeding the value of all such property owned in common, in exchange for stock in said corporation, on the basis of par and equal value, it shall be lawful for the guardian of said ward to subscribe for and to purchase said corporate stock in an amount not exceeding the value of the undivided interest of said ward and convey such real or personal property of said ward to such corporation in payment therefor; provided, that such guardian shall first apply to the probate court having jurisdiction of said estate and obtain therefrom an order approving said sale or conveyance by said guardian on behalf of said ward; and said order approving said sale or conveyance shall not be granted unless in the opinion of the court such sale or conveyance to such corporation for its said stock is to the best interests of said ward, considering the nature of the corporation and the actual value of its assets.

"Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

"Sec. 4. That the fact that there is at this time no law specifically authorizing the investment of a ward's estate in a corporation and the conveyance of such estate, or a part thereof, to such corporation in exchange for stock and that there exists at this time estates of wards that can be so profitably invested, and the public importance of the purposes herein contemplated, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring the suspension of the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house, and the said rule is hereby suspended, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Amend House bill No. 415 by adding after the word "therefor" in line 30, on page 1, the following, "secured as provided in Article 4181, Revised Statutes, 1925."
